

ZERUST® Tube Strip Pro-20 VCI Diffuser

ZERUST®/EXCOR® Tube Strip Pro VCI Diffuser is a flexible and durable plastic strip that diffuses ZERUST® Vapor Corrosion Inhibitors (VCI) chemistry. The Tube Strip Pro can be trimmed to the desired length to protect ferrous metal tubes and pipes up to 4 inches in diameter from rust and corrosion for up to 2 years.

ZERUST® Tube Strip Pro can help reduce repair and maintenance costs by preventing corrosion within bolt thread holes, the interior of hollow car chassis frames, confined electronic spaces (such as inside computers, control boxes, etc.), tubes, pipes, and gun barrels while in storage and shipping. The Tube Strip Pro is easy to install, simply insert the Tube Strip Pro inside the ferrous tube or pipe and cap the ends tightly. VCI molecules diffuse from the Tube Strip Pro and saturate the air inside of the pipe, protecting interior surfaces from corrosion. In addition, ZERUST® Tube Strip Pro does not leave residue or powder.

Removal is quick and easy by simply uncapping the pipe or tube and removing the Tube Strip Pro. ZERUST® Tube Strip Pro may be used with ZERUST® corrosion inhibitor liquids and packaging such as ZERUST® ICT® bags for additional long-term storage protection. Check with your local ZERUST®/EXCOR® representative for the best corrosion protection system for your metal assets.
